OUR NEWS OF THE LAST WEEK

Evacuation of people with limited mobility and the elderly.
Old woman took a long time to get ready, put on other shoes, because she couldn't go in her slippers...
It's okay, she's safe now!

Ukrainian children have had their childhood stolen from them. Instead of classrooms, they are in basements, instead of family dinners, they are waiting for a phone call from mom or dad who is at war.
And our children's games are now adult. A checkpoint in one of the frontline cities of Ukraine.
Glory to Ukraine!

Yesterday, the village was heavily bombed, and many people left on their own transportation. Today, I checked the remaining residents to see if they needed to be evacuated. One man was in his house when the roof and walls collapsed, but he managed to find a way out. He really wanted to be evacuated. Everyone is safe now.
