OUR NEWS OF THE LAST WEEK

This is Oleksandr.
Sashko stayed in his house in Bakhmut and saw real hell on earth, but only after his neighbors' house was shelled did he decide to leave. He was lucky enough to find soldiers who pulled him out. We transported him to Kramatorsk and registered him for resettlement in Zhytomyr region.

We persuaded the old man for a long time to evacuate from Kostyantynivka. His daughter helped us with this. And we did it! First to the hospital, then to a safe place. And also, the old man sang to us all the way - Ukrainians are invincible!
